

ACHESON WILL BE HEARD ON FOREIGN AID

House Committee Calls Secretary of State To Discuss Chinese Situation

SEEK CLARIFICATION

Washington, Feb. 24.—(AP)—Foreign aid for two sides of the world—China and Europe—came up for house study today.

Secretary of State Acheson was called to talk the Chinese situation over with 51 worried Republicans as the house foreign affairs committee wound up hearings on the $5,580,000,000 European aid bill. Chairman Sol Bloom (D-Ky.) said the committee probably will approve the European recovery plan next week.

But what the United States plans to do about the fate of struggling China is another matter. Some lawmakers fear it is too late to save China from Communism and that more aid would be a waste of money. Others disagree.

The government's position has not been made clear. The president told a news conference recently he had not made up his mind.

Acheson's meeting with the house Republicans today was the result of their requests for clarification.

Foreign capitals probably had their eyes also on the senate foreign aid committee, working on a reciprocal trade bill. This measure, as favored by the administration, would allow the president to reduce import duties as much as 50 percent in return for similar concessions from other nations.

The civil rights problem also threatened to thrust itself into the explosive senate battle over a new labor bill.

The issue cropped up unexpectedly late yesterday as the senate labor committee finally ended three and a half weeks of hearings marked by bitter wrangling. Senators of both parties said they were seriously studying a suggestion that any new labor law should require unions to treat white and negro workers alike. Some unions now bar negroes, or give them special memberships.

This was brought up yesterday by two negro witnesses. It was a new angle in the administration's fight to repeal the Taft-Hartley law. (Turn to Page Ten)

Body of County War Casualty Arriving Saturday Morning

Members of his family have been advised by the Columbus, O., distribution center that the body of Pvt. Anthony Gruttaria, of the United States Marine Corps, will arrive by train Saturday morning for final rites and interment.

Removal will be made to the Leo D. Gibson Funeral Home, where friends may pay their respects from 10 a. m. until the hour of services at 3 p. m. the same day. Interment will follow in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Military honors will be paid by Dinsmoor-Schwing Post, No. 631. Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the Leathernecks Detachment, Marine Corps League.

Tony, as he was familiarly known to his many friends in the community, was born in Clarendon on August 15, 1917, and was killed in action on Okinawa on May 11, 1945.

He attended Clarendon schools and was later employed for five years as a machinist for the Struthers-Wells Corporation. He had been a resident of Warren for seven years prior to entering service, living in Walnut street. He was a member of St. Clara's parish in Clarendon as a youth and later of St. Joseph's.

Tony, enlisted at Erie June 30, 1944, and was assigned to Parris Island, S. C., for his boot training and to Camp Lejeune, N. C., for advanced training.

He went overseas from Camp Pendleton, Calif., on December 14, 1944, assigned first to the Russell Islands. He embarked from there for Okinawa on February 22, 1945, serving with Company E, 2nd Battalion, 1st Regiment of the 1st Marine Division until May 11, 1945, when he was killed in the Battle of Sugar Loaf Hill.

His brother, Frank, who resides at 519 Prospect street and is commandant of the Marine Leathernecks Detachment, enlisted with him at Erie and the two were together throughout their entire training period and tour of service until the day Tony was killed in action.

Tony leaves his wife, Clara Sivi Gruttaria, and two sons, Frank and George, of Sixth street, Youngsville; his mother, Catherine Gruttaria Frontera and his stepfather, James Frontera, Clarendon; and three sisters: Mrs. Mary Shecker, Clarendon; Millie Gruttaria, Warren; and Mrs. Minnie Steinkamp, New York City.

GRAND EXALTED RULER VISITS PITTSBURGH

Pittsburgh, Feb. 24.—(AP)—Communism has had "startling success" infiltrating America's schools and colleges, the grand exalted ruler of the Elks warned yesterday.

Speaking before the local lodge of the fraternal order, George J. Hall of New York warned Americans "must see to it that our schools put greater efforts into educating our children to the virtues and benefits of democracy."

"Just Stirring Cake Frosting"

"We were just stirring up a batch of cake frosting when—" said Mrs. Leona Thompson, left, and Mrs. Thelma Biever, of Los Angeles, explaining their severe burns. They were preparing cake frosting when a double boiler exploded, splattering them with the hot mixture.

$15,000,000 State Housing Subsidy Program Is Being Drafted By G. O. P. Leaders

Harrisburg, Feb. 24.—(AP)—The Republican administration sought today to tie the strings to its $15,000,000 housing subsidy program without drawing the knot too tight.

An informed source, who declined quotation by name, said the problem confronting bill-drafting aides of Gov. James H. Duff is twofold:

1. To insure that rentals will be fixed low enough to meet the need for housing among small-income groups.

2. And, at the same time, provide that builders will get sufficient returns to attract their investments.

Putting the two points into legal language elastic enough to foresee possible booms or busts in the nation's economy in the next few years is holding up introduction of the bill into the legislature, the source said.

The measure will likely appear in the Senate, the spokesman added, because it is not expected they will be completed in time for the March 3 bill deadline set by the House.

Duff has called for the subsidies to assure construction of an estimated $50,000,000 in low rent homes in the next two years.

A subsidy of between 25 and 35 percent, the governor said, is needed to induce builders to go ahead with housing projects in view of present inflated costs.

Duff's biggest trouble is how to tie enough strings to the outright state grant to be able to say how, when and where the projects will be built and how much rental will be charged and still make the idea attractive to builders to bid on the subsidies.

Under current proposals, the State Planning Board is suggested that this agency will absorb the State Housing Board—would set up plans and specifications for any given project.

The builders would be invited to offer bids with the understanding that the rentals would be fixed at a certain monthly figure per unit for a period of 10 to 15 years.

The builder offering to construct the project with the lowest amount of state subsidy would get the job. Meanwhile, the House and Senate adjourned yesterday until Monday. Next week will see the beginning of four-day sessions, a move designed by leaders to finish up early in April.

Senator Ralph A. Winter (R-Medina) said today his Ohio turnpike bill should come to vote in Senate within two weeks.

It has been approved by the Senate highway committee and is waiting the "go" signal from the rules committee.

A similar bill by Winter won Senate approval two years ago but failed to pass the House of Representatives.

The new measure would create a five-member turnpike commission with the state highway director as ex-officio chairman. The commission would be authorized to build and operate toll roads, condemn lands for rights-of-way and issue bonds to finance its work.

Bonds would be sold privately, and would not be an obligation of state. When all bonds are paid off from tolls, the road would be given to the state for inclusion in its highway system.

President Is Scheduled For Two Victory Dinners Tonight

Washington, Feb. 21.—(AP)—President Truman tonight is scheduled to address two Jefferson-Jackson Day victory dinners.

He is expected to get in a plug for his domestic program.

The President last night addressed another dinner, launching the new $1,040,000,000 Savings Bond drive set for May 16-June 30. He told campaign workers that as long as their kind exists "we are good for 1,000 years."

Tonight he will dine at the Mayflower Hotel and make a brief informal talk at a dinner presided over by Rep. McCormack of Massachusetts, House floor leader.

Later the President will go to the Stader Hotel for a formal address at 10:30 p. m. Senator Lucas of Illinois, Senate floor leader,

NEW RELIGION ACT PROPOSED FOR BULGARIA

Foreign Minister Charges Vatican Linked With Forces Trying To Stir Up New War

CLERGY FACING TRIAL

Sofia, Bulgaria, Feb. 24.—(AP)—Foreign Minister Vassil Kalarov told the Bulgarian parliament last night that the Vatican is linked with "dark forces" attempting to stir up a new world war.

He made his charges as the Communist-controlled legislative body considered new restrictions on religion. The proposed new religion law came up as the hour of trial approached for 15 Protestant clergymen accused of criminal activities against the state.

The 15 include the heads of the Methodist, Baptist, Congregational and Pentecost churches in Bulgaria. They go into court tomorrow, charged with treason, spying for the United States and Great Britain and illegal money dealings.

The Kalarov-sponsored religion bill would make the Greek Orthodox church the "only people's church" in the country. It would give the foreign ministry tight control over connections between church groups in the country and groups outside Bulgaria.

Bishop Says Award Offer Drew Threats

New York, Feb. 24.—(AP)—Methodist Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam says he was threatened in an attempt to make him turn down the 1949 award of the Churchman, Independent Protestant Episcopal Weekly.

In accepting the award last night at a dinner attended by some 500 guests, the bishop said efforts to get him to refuse it "ran the gamut from request, to demand to threat."

He did not give details. Previously, the Rev. Dr. Guy Emery Shipley, editor of the Churchman, claimed "secret police groups had tried to get Oxnam to decline the award and to persuade dinner sponsors to withdraw."

Several did so. Theodore Kirkpatrick, former FBI agent and now managing editor of the anti-Communist publication, "counter attack," said yesterday he had sought to persuade Oxnam to refuse the award.

The bishop, head of the Methodist church in the New York area, said the overtures to him were aimed at "the destruction of the Churchman, a liberal church journal with more than a hundred years of history behind it."

Former Secretary of State George C. Marshall declined the award last year on the ground the Churchman concerns itself with international affairs as well as church matters.

The award for the "promotion of good will and better understanding among peoples, has been accepted in past years by President Franklin D. Roosevelt, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and the late Wendell Willkie.

Committee Adopts Broad Housing Bill

Washington, Feb. 24.—(AP)—The senate banking committee today approved a broad multi-billion federal housing bill, 9 to 3. It is to be introduced in the senate tomorrow as a bi-partisan measure.

Chairman Maybank (D-SC), following a closed door meeting of Bricker (Ohio) and Clegg (R-Wash.) the committee. He said Senators and Robertson (D-Va.) voted against the bill.

The committee also smacked down, 10 to 2, an amendment by Bricker to require that there be no segregation or discrimination in public housing projects which the bill authorizes.

For the moment, at least, that action headed off a threat that the measure might bog down in a civil rights fight.

Maybank told reporters that Bricker intended to bring the amendment upon the floor, however, and that he had asked for a "record vote" in committee so that there would be no misunderstanding as to how senators had voted.

Hoover Commission Agrees Accounting Set-Up Is In Need Of Some Improvement

Washington, Feb. 24.—(AP)—The 12-man Hoover commission agreed unanimously today that the government's accounting set-up needs improving, but split four ways over how to do it.

The group came out solidly for "radical revision" of the present budgeting and accounting methods. Their idea, they said, is to show clearly: "1. On budgeting: what is the money wanted for? 2. On accounting: what do the taxpayers get for it?"

Present practices, the group declared, "confuse the congress and the public and make effective administration almost impossible."

The bipartisan commission's sharpest disagreement to date focused on the stormy figure of Comptroller General Lindsay C. Warren, and the 10,000-man, $30,000,000-a-year general accounting office he heads.

Warren, a former congressman and himself an advocate of big scale government reform, had given the commission on government reorganization advance warning that any proposal to trim his agency's powers would bring a congressional fight that might wreck the whole reorganization program.

A seven-man majority of the commission—including former President Herbert Hoover, its chairman, and Secretary of Defense Forrestal, Senator Aiken (R-Vt.) and Rep. Brown (R-Ohio)—sought a middle course.

Aiming at uniform practices, they recommended creation of an "accountant general" in the treasury who would "prescribe general accounting methods and enforce accounting procedures x x x subject to the approval of the comptroller general."

That promptly provoked two dissents—one that the majority would encroach too far on Warren's present activities and the other that they wouldn't encroach far enough.

Senator McClellan (D-Ark.) and former Rep. Carter Menasco (I-Ala.) rallied to Warren's side in the dissents. Warren had forecast after he first got wind of the nature of the report was taking.

The vice chairman of the commission, Dean Acheson—who recently became secretary of state—diplomatically avoided a battle with Warren by commending a joint program for accounting system improvements already initiated by Warren, the treasury and the budget bureau.

This joint program is a realistic approach to this problem under present circumstances," Acheson said.

The majority agreed but said that "more than voluntary correctives are needed."

Truman Finds Reaction To Caustic Speech Satisfactory

Washington, Feb. 24.—(AP)—President Truman said today the reaction to his use of the term "S.O.B." in lambasting critics was very satisfactory.

The president laughed with reporters during questioning about the salty language he used in a speech Tuesday night at a dinner honoring Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan, his military aide.

Mr. Truman said then he wasn't going to let any "S.O.B." tell him what government officials he should fire or hire. He spoke in defense of Vaughan, who had been criticized by Radio Commentator Drew Pearson for accepting a decoration from the Argentine government.

A reporter wanted to know today what reason he had received to the talk. Without amplification, Mr. Truman replied the reaction was very satisfactory to him.

At one point during the news conference, Mr. Truman suggested that maybe President Peron of Argentina and Pearson may have nominated themselves for the 1949 Nobel Peace prize.

This came about when one newsman asked if either Peron or Pearson had been nominated for the prize by the government.

Mr. Truman said flatly they were not.

Then he added, probably they were nominated by themselves.

TRAFFIC PROPOSAL

Pittsburgh, Feb. 24.—(AP)—City Traffic Engineer Donald M. McNeil yesterday offered a three-way solution to Pittsburgh's growing downtown traffic problem. Speaking before American Legion Post 569, McNeil said the city should build two by-pass loops around the downtown area for through traffic, deprive businesses of special parking privileges and arrange for adequate off-street parking facilities downtown.

BUNCHE DECLARES ARMISTICE BLAZES PATH FOR SIMILAR ACTION BY ALL ARAB STATES

Rhodes, Feb. 24.—(AP)—Egypt and Israel signed today an historic armistice, hailed by the United Nations mediator as an epochal event foreshadowing the early return of peace to the middle east.

The mediator, Dr. Ralph J. Bunche, said the agreement "virtually eliminates the possibility of a future armed conflict" between Egypt and Israel. He called it "a significant contribution to world peace."

Now, said Bunche, "the concentration will be on peaceful settlement of all outstanding questions, political, territorial and economic" between Israel and her arab neighbors. The U. N. Palestine Conciliation Commission already has started to work for this.

Egypt and Israel, by their agreement, blazed the path for the other Arab states Iraq already has decided to approve whatever agreements are reached by the other neighbors of Palestine who nine months ago had vowed to destroy the dynamic Jewish state.

Talks with Trans-Jordan, the most formidable of Israel's foes, begin Monday.

The Israeli-Egyptian armistice leaves Israel in possession of nearly all the southern Negev desert, which she hopes to colonize, including Beersheba, mother city of the Arab race. It outlines broad demilitarization zones, binds Egypt to surrender all territory she holds in Palestine except Gaza and its five-mile-wide coastal strip, and to withdraw to a defensive line 17 to 20 miles inside her own frontier.

The armistice is clearly described in its preamble as a prelude to a permanent peace.

In Cairo, Prime Minister Abdel Hadi Pasha told newsmen the agreement was on "purely military questions" and did not deal with the political future of the Holy Land. But in Tel Aviv, Israeli Foreign Minister Moshe Shertok said the armistice would prove a "momentous event in the life of the Middle East." He added that Israel was confident Egypt never would regret her initiative in ending the shooting war.

Dr. Bunche, given the credit for the agreement by the Israeli delegation, said the armistice incorporates in its first article a declaration which is "very much akin to a non-aggression pact." It provides for a substantial withdrawal of troops and reduction of armed forces by both sides. He called the agreement a fair and honorable one.

Still to be settled are the fate of the southern tip of the Negev desert from Beersheba southward to the Red Sea, the central area of Palestine held by the Arab Legion and Haqia and the old part of Jerusalem.

These territorial questions will be determined largely by armistice negotiations with Trans-Jordan beginning here Monday.

The Egyptian agreement specifically states that territorial questions are subject to the final peace settlement. But there seems no doubt that this will be largely determined by the armistice line.

The formal signing was at 10:30 a. m. in the yellow room of the Hotel Des Rhodes where Dr. Ralph Bunche, acting U. N. mediator, made his headquarters during 42 days of diligent negotiations.

The ceremony was the first open meeting since negotiations began here Jan. 13 to end the nine-months intermittent war.

Photographers were allowed to take pictures during the signing and reporters were admitted to the proceedings.

MARGIOTTI IS IN HOSPITAL WITH COLIC

Pittsburgh, Feb. 24.—(AP)—The Delouis Waldo murder trial was recessed today as the teen-age defendant's attorney, Charles Margiotti, was admitted to St. Francis Hospital with a bad cold.

Delouis, 18, is accused of fatally beating and burning her 61-year-old aunt, Mrs. Gertrude Norris, 61, at the latter's apartment house last May 29.

The defense counsel was expected to make his closing remarks to the jury today. He took the witness stand yesterday.

In a telephone conversation with Judge Sara M. Soffel, Margiotti asked the postponement, explaining he has handled the girl entire case personally and could not easily delegate the responsibility of the closing address to anyone else.

10,000 Acres In Crawford Co Sought For A Game Preserve

Washington, Feb. 24.—(AP)—The Fish and Wildlife Service has recommended that 10,000 acres of government-owned land in Crawford county, Pa., be turned over to Pennsylvania as a game preserve, Rep. Gavin (R-Pa.) said today.

The land now is part of the property of the government-owned Keystone Ordnance Works near Meadville.

The Pennsylvania Game Commission informed the War Assets Administration regional office in Cincinnati last fall that it wants the land.

An area was suitable for the purpose life Service to determine if the land was suitable for the purpose. WAA asked the Fish and Wildlife mentioned by the state commission. This is done so that the federal government can determine if the land will be put to the best use. Gavin said he had just been informed by the service that it had found the land suitable and he recommended that Pennsylvania application be granted.

Crawford county adjoins Gavin's congressional district. He said he became interested in the proposal when sportsmen from the area urged that the land, not now used by the government, be made a game preserve.

A War Assets official told a reporter the land would be acquired under a law which permits transfer of ownership of such areas for recreational and other purposes free of charge.

But the decision, WAA said, rests with the Cincinnati regional office.

Gregory Peck and Anne Baxter in "YELLOW SKY" at the Library Theatre Sunday-Monday-Tuesday

With "Yellow Sky," which opens Sunday, Monday, Tuesday at the Library Theatre, Twentieth Century-Fox has brought to the screen a gripping dramatic hit that offers local moviegoers some 95 minutes of the tautest, most hard-hitting and exciting film fare to come this way in many a moon. Gregory Peck, Anne Baxter, Richard Widmark and an excellent supporting cast give superlative performances in this dynamic story, and Director William Wellman and Producer Lamar Trotti have combined with another top achievement to match their unforgettable "Ox-Bow Incident."

"Yellow Sky" recounts the story of seven men—outlaws—who hunted over the burning Arizona badlands, hide out in a ghost town where a girl, wise in the ways of men and the desert, lives with her grandfather.

Gregory Peck is superb as the leader of the desperadoes whose efforts to keep the men in line is complicated by the complex relationship that develops between himself and the girl. Anne Baxter plays the desert-hardened girl, underscoring her versatility with one of her finest performances to date. Richard Widmark is perfect as the treacherous outlaw who challenges Peck's lead. Others in the outstanding cast include Robert Arthur, John Russell, Henry Morgan, James Barton and Charles Kemper.

Potato Growers of District Hold Meeting in Titusville

Titusville Herald: Expectations are for another record potato crop this year if price supports remain at 90 percent of parity, nearly 100 potato growers were told here yesterday at a seven-county district meeting. The state potato yield now is twice what it was 20 years ago.

Growers from Crawford, Venango, Mercer, Erie, Warren, Forest and Clarion counties were present to hear four extension specialists talk about marketing problems, cultural practices, potato diseases and insect control.

The Government price support program was discussed for a brief period. A new program that may call for a sliding scale of support payments, if the crop is good, the support will drop to 60 percent of parity. If the crop is poor, the figure will climb to a maximum of 90 percent.

Such a program would weed out the inefficient producers and be a fine thing for the entire industry, it was said at the meeting.

Better grading and better marketing of potatoes is needed, it was stressed. Under a marketing agreement with Maine that may be in effect soon, U. S. No. 1 grade potatoes will have to be two and a quarter inches in size to meet requirements.

Potatoes should be planted as early as possible, providing they escape the frost period. Once the plants poke their leaves above ground a heavy frost might lower the yield, but they need time to mature.

In this region May is considered a suitable time for planting, specialists said.

Spraying for insect and disease control increases yields and improves quality. The best yields were obtained in a test demonstration with carbonates and DDT as a spray program, with fixed copper and DDT mixture and Bordeaux and DDT following in that order.

The use of DDT for killing insects increases the yield from 25 to 30 percent over the use of fungicides alone.

Weed killers should not be used on potato plants, it was stressed, because wide leaves of the plants are too vulnerable to injury.

Although 65 percent of the potatoes grown in Pennsylvania are Katahdins, this standard variety has yielded less than three other varieties in a series of 12 demonstrations conducted by Pennsylvania State College. The high-yielding varieties are Essex, which is blight resistant and produces about 150 more bushels per acre than Katahdins; Ontario, scab resistant and produces about 100 more; and Teton, ring rot resistant and which produces about 30 bushels more than Katahdins.

When trying new varieties of potatoes it is best to begin with about 100 pounds of seed first, to see whether the seed potatoes like the type of soil in that location. Certified seed should be used and an effort made to find out just how certified the seeds are.

O. C. Tritt, county agent of Warren, presided at the meeting in the Y. M. C. A. Speakers included these extension specialists: Robert Donaldson, marketing; Henry Menusan, entomology; Elmer C. Pifer, agronomy; and O. D. Burke, plant pathology.

Among the county agents and their assistants who were present in addition to Mr. Tritt were Lester Kulp, assistant agent of Crawford county; Harold Waha and Charles Robertson, agent and assistant of Mercer county; and Paul Cressman, county agent of Erie county.

World-famous Vienna Choir Boys, currently marking the 450th anniversary of their founding and singing in the Woman's Club auditorium at 8:30 p. m. today under the auspices of the Warren Junior Chamber of Commerce music committee.

After a ten-year absence from the concert scene, the Vienna Choir Boys are again in this country and are being received everywhere with the spontaneous acclaim that has always been accorded members of this talented European boys' musical organization.

The choir is appearing in Warren this evening as the third attraction on the Jaycees concert series for 1948-49 and will sing the following numbers under the direction of Felix Molzer:

- I. Judas Mercator Da Vittoria Duo Seraphim Da Vittoria Laudate Dominum Mozart Agnus Dei (from E minor Mass) Langesroth
- II. Herr und Madame Denis Comic Opera in One Act by J. Offenbach INTERMISSION
- III. Der Tanz (The Dance) Schubert Zigeunerleben (Gypsy Life) Schumann Von Meinen Bergen Muss Ich Scheiden Austrian Folk Song (I Must Leave My Mountains) Drunten in Unterland (Down in the Lowlands) Austrian Folk Song Der Kirtal (Country Fair) Austrian Folk Song Sphaerenkaenge (Sounds of the Spheres) Strauss

Music lovers are once again reminded that admission to these Jaycee-sponsored concerts is by membership cards only, there being no single admissions available for the various attractions on the season's schedule.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

A Self-Supporting Germany By 1953 Is ECA-Army Aim

BY PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—(NEA)—A self-supporting western Germany by 1953 is the goal of Economic Co-operation Administration and Army of Occupation authorities. This is one of the outstanding facts to come out of current congressional consideration of Marshall Plan estimates for next year.

This goal of the combined Army-ECA program of course makes several assumptions. One is that there will be no war and that the Berlin airlift will be ended. Another is that some kind of German government will be set up and some kind of peace made with it.

Reunion of east Germany with west Germany is considered a desirable objective, but whether that union is achieved is not material. All calculations are now made on the basis of balancing west German required imports of about $2,800,000,000 in 1953 with a similar volume of exports to make the Germans self-sufficient. To most Marshall planners, there can be no full European recovery without German recovery to supply the coal, chemicals and manufactured goods—less armaments—which Germany has traditionally supplied the rest of the world.

THE trend towards reduction in costs of German recovery is shown in Army-Marshall Plan requirements for next year. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1949, they totaled $984,000,000. For the year ending June 30, 1950, they total $930,000,000. The hope is that by June 30, 1952, requirements for U. S. aid will be practically zero.

There has been plenty of delay in getting the Marshall Plan rolling for Germany, admits N. H. Collisson, ECA administrator for Germany since last September. Captain Collisson is an engineer who served in the Navy during the war and was later made Coal Mines Administrator during government seizure. He has been in Washington recently to work on Marshall Plan estimates for Congress.

First year Marshall Plan appropriations for American and British zones in Germany were $414,000,000 plus $100,000,000 for the French zone, not yet fully integrated with the Bizone.

Actual Bizone deliveries to Dec. 31 have been only $108,000,000 plus $31,000,000 for the French zone. This is roughly a fourth of appropriations. Of the deliveries, $126,000,000 was food and agricultural commodities, $6,000,000 industrial commodities. The balance was ocean freight.

Small deliveries are explained principally by the fact that the industrial materials Germany wanted were also wanted by the rest of the world, says Captain Collisson. Iron ore, copper, electric motors, machinery that required considerable drafting-board time before it could be manufactured.

FOR the fiscal year ending June 30, 1950, total Bizone German requirements have been estimated at $404,000,000 plus $115,000,000 for the French zone. Of the total, about two-thirds will be for industrial equipment and one-third for food, reversing past conditions. One other benefit that Germany will get later from Marshall Plan aid will be through the use of her counterpart funds. All Marshall Plan aid sent to Germany is charged against the German central bank in the new western zone Deutsche marks. As of Jan. 1 there were over 300,000,000 marks in this fund. No expenditures have been made from it as yet, but spending of 250,000,000 marks will be authorized soon for rebuilding west German railroads. Later counterpart expenditures will be for modernizing coal mines and increasing German electric power.

In building up exports to $2,800,000,000 in the next three years, the Germans have a real problem, Captain Collisson points out. German exports this year are valued at about $670,000,000. So they must be more than quadrupled to make Germany self-sufficient.

LICENSES REVOKED
In the week ending February 4, the Bureau of Highway Safety withdrew the cards of 680 drivers. Of this number 31 were revoked and 659 suspended. Operating privileges were restored to 409.

ARRESTS INCREASE
Arrests by State Police for violations of the Vehicle Code increased more than 22,000 in 1948 over the previous year, according to information released from State Police Headquarters today. During 1948 State Police made 90,595 arrests for motor violation, while 68,300 were arrested in 1947.

RURAL FATALITIES
Twenty-two more lives were lost on Pennsylvania's rural highways during January, 1949, than in the same month last year, according to a report issued from State Police Headquarters today. State Police records show that 66 rural fatalities occurred last month, as compared with 44 rural highway deaths during January, 1948.

MANY SEEK POST
Thirty-four persons, including two women, took the four-hour examination for substitute clerk-carrier positions at the Titusville post office Saturday. This was reported to be the largest number of applicants to take the test in the past 15 years and the first time in recent years that women were applicants.

RELIEF ROLL INCREASE
Pennsylvania's public assistance rolls increased by 9,562 persons during the month of January, bringing the total number of persons receiving aid to 316,179. General assistance, reflecting the continued decline in employment during the month, showed an increase of 5,811 persons to account for more than half of the total increase. Aid to Dependent Children increased by 3,831 persons while the Old-Age Assistance and Blind Pension rolls registered decreases of 58 and 22 persons respectively.

PROBE BIBLE THEFT
The case of the stolen jacket was continued until Friday while Titusville officials look into the circumstances of the theft and determine whether the youths involved should be held for juvenile court, Chief E. N. Alderman said yesterday. It was taken from a parked Crosley station wagon, together with a large black leather case containing two Bibles and books of the Wathtower Bible and Tract Society. The jacket was recovered but the boys denied taking the case as well.

FOREST FIRE WARNING
Forests and Waters Secretary M. F. Draemel has issued a special plea to Pennsylvania's sportsmen to pay particular attention to the elimination of forest fires as a means of improving both hunting and fishing in this State. "In the United States," he said, "more acres are burned each year than all the conservation agencies combined could replant. We are on the losing side of the game unless, and until the people can be made more conscious of the result of carelessness."

FOREST TREE BOOKLET
The State Department of Forests and Waters has released an official Bureau of Forests booklet for specialized distribution throughout Pennsylvania. Entitled "Forest Trees to Plant in Pennsylvania," the 34-page booklet dealing with 23 different subjects, is primarily designated for persons interested in planting trees for reforestation of idle lands. The department plans to distribute the new booklet to prospective planters of trees purchased from the Bureau of Forest nurseries. Instructions on how to plant trees obtained from the Department for reforestation purposes is included in the booklet.

SALES LEVIES DROPPED
A city mercantile tax became law at Bradford Tuesday after final passage in city council, following a short debate between councilmen and representatives of the Independent Retail Grocers and Meat Market Operators. Under terms of the ordinance a three-mill tax is placed on each dollar of volume of gross business to retail vendors or dealers in goods, wares and merchandise, and all persons engaged in conducting restaurants or other places where food, drinks or refreshments are served. Wholesale vendors or dealers in goods, wares and merchandise will pay tax of one-mill on each dollar of the volume of annual gross business transacted or commissions earned.

IT'S CHANGED NOW
The lower classes were not allowed to fight during a war for 200 years during the Middle Ages. Townsmen who agreed to supply military units to the great lords in return for free charters were the one exception. Most of the fighting was done by armed knights on horseback.

Another Shot In Arm For Business Is Being Prepared

By SAM DAWSON New York.—(AP)—Washington is preparing another shot in the arm for business—although that is not its avowed purpose.

Some think it may duplicate the Marshall plan-rearmament tonic which about this time last year halted an earlier budding recession and sent industry to all-time highs of output and income.

The new elixir is to be a rearmament of western Europe—a pouring out of American goods and materials which could keep U. S. heavy industries humming, prolong some materials shortages and even revive others.

Coupled with the Marshall plan, which is now being felt at the factory level here, and our own rearmament, still largely in the talk or planning stage, this new shot in the arm might retard deflation. Some even think it might start another inflationary spiral. But others seem just as sure that inflation is now a dead duck, and no new force can do much more than slow down the deflationary trend.

Russia may have quite a bit to do with this attempt to bolster our economy, just as it had, unwittingly, last year. Yet nothing could be farther from its desire.

The Soviets have been pictured as counting heavily on an American depression. Nothing could please them more, it is said, or help their cause in Europe more. But the Russian bear so far has helped stave off any such turn in business here by stepping up the cold war every time the Truman administration needed to whet American public approval of such business-bolstering steps as rearmament and the Marshall plan. Each time, Russia made it plain that we had to act to aid Europe. And each time we acted, we gave U. S. business another shot in the arm.

This new proposed outpouring of American goods, it is presumed, will be financed straight from the U. S. Treasury, and will be over and above what Marshall plan aid and private trading can add to our exports.

Businessmen are wondering, therefore, if rearmament can repeat last spring's job—giving American industry and business the spring tonic it needs to get it out of the winter letdown.

LUDLOW
Ludlow, Feb. 23—Luther League Fellowship Service was observed Sunday morning at Monah church with a fine attendance. The Rev. Hans Pearson used as his sermon subject, "Four Kinds Of Worshipers", and the choir used as its anthem, "Hold Thou My Hand", with Mrs. Emil Nelson as soloist. Luther League members appearing on the program included Phyllis Dahle, who gave a prayer; Kent Swanson, who read an article entitled, "A Job To The Glory of God"; Paul Johnson who read a poem, "My Hands And His"; David Swanson, who announced the offering, and explained its purpose. It was announced Mr. and Mrs. Carl C. Benson and their daughter, Judith Ann, have become new members of the church, and were welcomed as such. Holy Communion will be observed next Sunday. It was also announced that a gift of $20 was presented to the Memorial Fund of the Altar Guild by the Johnson family in memory of the birthday of Mrs. C. O. Johnson.

Lutheran Circle
The Lutheran Circle was entertained at its regular meeting at the church. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. B. K. Connelly and Mrs. John Fox. The meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Enoch O. Nelson, with Scripture reading and prayer by Mrs. Melvin McCleary, followed by a sacred duet by Mrs. Emil Nelson and Mrs. Wm. Hanson. This was the main business meeting of the year, with plans made for the total year, and with chairmen appointed for the various committees. (Turn to Page Eleven)

VOCATIONAL BIGOTRY

The denial of Florida's Sen. Claude Pepper that he meant to reflect on the patriotism of any class in charging that manufacturers' sons "stayed home" during the last war can hardly undo the damage wrought by the senator's original intolerant statement. "I made a generalization," Pepper pleads. "I distinctly remember saying, 'I do not impugn the patriotism of any class.'" But it is precisely in such generalizations that intolerance thrives.

Efforts to banish prejudice from American life are directed almost exclusively toward feelings about race and religion. But there is another form of intolerance that needs some educational spadework. It is what may be called vocational bigotry.

Efforts to banish prejudice from American life are directed almost exclusively toward feelings about race and religion. But there is another form of intolerance that needs some educational spadework. It is what may be called vocational bigotry.

The vocational bigot is the person who tells you that all union organizers are Communists, or that all corporation executives are Fascists, or that all lawyers are crooked.

It is possible to be a vocational bigot and at the same time be a liberal, as that elastic word is usually defined. Senator Pepper dares to take a stand against racial and religious intolerance, though he comes from a part of the country where such a stand can amount to political suicide. Yet he has proven that he can be as intolerant as Rep. John Rankin or the most hidebound anti-unionist in the National Association of Manufacturers.

The personal target of Senator Pepper's ill-starred remarks was Ira Mosher, who was speaking for the NAM before a Senate committee on the new labor relations bill. Mr. Pepper wound up by pounding on a desk and shouting, "It was the workers' sons by and large who stayed home and made the profits out of the war."

Such a statement, of course, was undignified, ungenerous and untrue. It would have been all that even if Mr. Mosher had not replied by informing the senator that he had lost three of his family in the war.

Would Senator Pepper have perverted the selective service system to send all manufacturers' sons to the front to atone for the sins of their fathers? Does he think that mere exemption from combat duty contributed nothing to victory?

We think the senator might answer no to these questions if he gave them his intelligent consideration. But vocational bigotry, like any bigotry, is not the product of intelligent consideration. It is the product of fear and insecurity and personal antipathies. It is the manifestation of a desire for a scapegoat and an escape.

It is just as foreign to the best American tradition to hate a man solely for his occupation as it is to hate him for his rite of worship or the color of his skin. And in this particular case, such outbursts as Senator Pepper's don't make for better labor-management relations, which should be a prime objective of a new labor bill. They don't even make for good relations.

BROTHERHOOD WEEK

Governor James H. Duff urges Pennsylvania to observe this week as American Brotherhood Week under the sponsorship of the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

"The purpose of this observance is to promote justice, understanding and cooperation among Protestants, Catholics and Jews in order to eliminate inter-group prejudices and lead to a social order in which religious ideals of brotherhood and justice shall become the standards of human relationships," the Governor said.

"This objective is basic to the ideals in which all Americans and Pennsylvanians take pride. The very first law enacted after the landing of William Penn guaranteed religious liberty, with complete freedom of worship and the public obligation to respect each individual's choice. Freedom of religion and protection of rights of all citizens regardless of race, color, and creed, have been ingrained into the United States Constitution which is the charter of all of our civil liberties.

"Tolerance, understanding, justice, cooperation, unity, and good will toward our fellow men are goals American Brotherhood Week seeks. They also are the principles on which our Commonwealth and our Nation were founded; they form the basic tenet of all religions which foster the fellowship of man; and they are essential to a peaceful civilization."

The country may take heart from the expert opinion in the price situation by President Truman's top economic adviser. We are simply in a period of disinflation. In other words, prices are dis-ascending in a healthy sort of way. So there is no cause for dis-encouragement. Everybody can dis-inhale and relax.

HERE and THERE

"Back in 1884, Fred Windsor of Warren, Pa., who was widely known in Jamestown, performed a feat of long-distance running which was a frequent conversation topic in the two towns for many a long year," recalls "Round the Town" column of the Jamestown Post-Journal. The article says: "He covered the 21 miles from the Carver House in Warren to the Sherman House in Jamestown, N. Y., in three hours and 17 minutes without any special training and wearing long trousers with ordinary running shoes. In order to see that he really made the run, two men went along with a horse and buggy, checking his every movement. The roads were very dusty at the time, making his task more difficult. In later years he commanded the Warren Company of the National Guard and went to Puerto Rico as colonel in command of the 18th Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry during the Spanish-American War."

This and That: Spring-like weather broke the ice at the Kane Country Club over the weekend when a foursome was noted out with their clubs getting in a few pre-season swings. . . . Here's an item from the February 24, 1883, issue of the Warren Ledger that makes interesting reading for pre-

Interesting Items Taken From The Warren Evening Times

The Legion bugle corps is off to a good start, having had a successful practice session under the able direction of Wm. H. Cooper, cornetist. Several took advantage of his invitation to drop into his place of business where they were given a start in bugling. . . . Postmaster Lyons threatens prosecution of those who have looted about the premises of the post office and littered the floor with the contents of wastebaskets and destroyed government material. . . . In the Twenty Years Ago column, 1909, it is stated that the "Trip to the Moon" was a huge success at the library. Those in the cast are W. A. Cameron, Norman Davis, Harry W. Conarro, Clare McMichael, Jennie Kennedy, Geraldine Sanderson, Ethel Sanderson, Florence McNett, Bess Tochterman and Mildred Dietrich. Another item in the same column reports that the postal card has caught on so strongly that there are now designs for every special occasion.

1939
It's Fasnacht time again on the well-kept farms of the Pennsylvania Dutch. Before nightfall, thousands of the doughnut-like delicacies will be eaten. At the first streak of dawn, last out from under the covers, is known during the day as Fasnacht and gets only one of the delicacies to eat. This observance coincides with Shrove Tuesday, the final day of feasting and merriment before Lent. The North Warren Civic Club quirt dropped a 42-28 tilt with the First Methodists at the latter's gym. Riggs, for the winners, and Lundquist, for the losers, led their respective teams in the scoring department. . . . Governor James said that he would extend every proper cooperation to the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission for completion of the $31,500,000 all-weather highway between Harrisburg and Pittsburgh.

From where I sit . . . by Joe Marsh

Back Howell and I were in Balloville last week. Dropped in at Bob's diner where some friends were sitting around talking about whether to sell hogs now or wait.

Buck plunges right into the discussion. He's lecturing away when suddenly they all stand up and start stomping their feet like it was an Indian war dance.

I'm flabbergasted. But Buck only looked sheepish and explains, "Guess I was talking again, when I should've been listening. When a person's talking time gets out of line with his listening time around here, the gang reminds him by standing up and stomping."

From where I sit, that's a good system. Everyone has a right to his opinions—but others have a right to theirs, too—whether it's deciding between to sell or not to sell, apple pie or cherry pie, or a glass of mellow beer or cider. Life's more interesting that way, and hang it if you don't sometimes learn something!

Scott And Morris Rites February 5th Announced Today

In a simple ceremony performed at ten o'clock Saturday morning, February 5, in St. Joseph's church, Father Arthur Leon, assistant pastor, united in marriage Miss Eleanor Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kendall Morris, of Warren, and James Roy Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Scott, of Philadelphia.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore traditional heavy white satin, with a long train, and a veil of illusion net falling from a crown of the satin material. Her bouquet was of white roses.

Her attendants were her aunt, Mrs. Isabel Vesco, who wore yellow brocade and carried roses of a matching shade, and Miss Sara Ann Davis, of Johnstown, a classmate of the bride, who wore blue brocade and carried pink roses.

Samuel MacGuckin, Philadelphia, served as best man for Mr. Scott and ushers were Louis Vesco, uncle of the bride, and Frank DeMarco, her cousin.

Mothers of the principals wore gray ensembles with red rose corsages.

After a wedding dinner at the Carver Hotel, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents at Pleasant Field, Pleasant township. The newlyweds left later for a honeymoon in Buffalo, N. Y., before continuing on to Philadelphia to make their home.

The bride is a graduate of Temple University School of Nursing and the bridegroom, veteran of four years' service in the Navy, is a student at Temple University.

Attending the wedding and reception were friends and relatives from Titusville, Spartansburg, Erie and Philadelphia.

Mother - Daughter Tea Is Planned By Scout Council

In a meeting held at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Walter Matthey, the public relations committee of Warren County Girl Scout Council completed plans for the 37th anniversary celebration of the council.

On March 12 in Beaty Junior High School, a mother-daughter silver tea will be held, with a program beginning at two o'clock. There will be games, movies, a broadcast over WNAE from the school gym, and refreshments.

Each girl, Brownie, Girl Scout and Senior Scout, accompanied by her mother or an interested adult, as well as the adult membership of the council, is invited to attend.

A silver offering will be taken at the close of the program to raise funds for a movie to be made this year. The film, in which girls of Warren county will be the actresses, is the major aim of the public relations committee for this year.

Members of troop committees are being asked to contribute cookies for the tea. Those wishing to make donations are asked to contact their neighborhood chairman, the Girl Scout office, or Mrs. Matthey.

53rd Wedding Anniversary At Sheffield

Sheffield, Feb. 23—Relatives and friends in the community join in extending best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Frank O. Peterson, Mill street, who will observe their 53rd wedding anniversary on Friday of this week.

Mrs. Monroe Blodgett and Miss Bertha C. Nelson entertained at 312 West Main street for a miscellaneous shower which honored Miss Alice Nelson, bride-elect. Games were played, with prizes awarded to Mrs. George Morley, Mrs. W. V. Christian, Mrs. Irwin Howarth and Miss Alma Johnson. Refreshments were carried out in a color scheme of pink and white.

Mrs. C. Greenwood, Warren, Miss Helen Piper and Mrs. Elvin Galmish, Youngsville, were out-of-town guests.

Twenty-eight neighbors and relatives honored Miss Nelson at a miscellaneous shower at her home, when Mrs. Carl A. Anderson and Miss Bertha Nelson entertained. The evening was spent playing games, with prizes won by Miss Edith Carlson, Mrs. J. W. Cronin, Miss Angeline Pellegrino, Mrs. Ray Barnett, Kane, Mrs. Albert Leuthold and Mrs. Palmer L. Davis, Jr., of Warren, were present from out of town.

Dinner Party

The Woman's Club enjoyed a dinner party Monday evening at the home of Mrs. John Cochran, with 28 present. Mrs. Fred Straubie was chairman, assisted by Mrs. W. O. Christenson, Mrs. W. H. Rawson, Mrs. F. E. Shick and the hostess. Miss Eva Brown had charge of a program on Irish linen, and movies on the history of linen, of table settings in color were shown by Mrs. Evelyn P. Gallor.

Grange News

WARREN GRANGE HAS STATE VISITOR

The February meeting of Warren Grange No. 1025 proved an interesting and well attended one, with Leo Johnson, state deputy master, present from Youngsville to speak briefly about the 1949 program of the Grange.

The lecturer's program included the following numbers: Song "America," by the entire group; reading, "Facts About Lincoln"; Mrs. Hilda Rohlin; reading, "How to Live Well" which was written by George Washington, Mrs. Grace Anderson; musical selections, Paul and Junior Briggs.

A birthday party honoring 31 birthday guests followed. Tables were pretty with cut flowers and candles, with birthday cakes completing the appointments. Mrs. Leonhart, oldest guest present, was awarded the birthday gift. Visitors were in attendance from Brokenstraw and Pleasant Granges.

Eight And Forty Continues Support Of Child Patient

Members of Warren County Salon, 405, Eight and Forty, were entertained at the home of Mrs. C. W. Landers, 31 Pickering street, Sheffield, for their February session.

Mrs. F. E. Shick, chapeau, conducted the brief business meeting, using for the first time a hand made and hand engraved gavel that was a gift from a department officer.

A letter from the department child welfare chairman, Mrs. White, was read by Mrs. Bert Hoyer, stating that the nine year old girl "adopted" by the Salon, has been transferred from Malvern Hospital to South Mountain Hospital as an active tuberculosis patient. It was voted to continue support of the child.

Entertainment was in the form of an auction of miscellaneous hand made articles and baked goods, the profits derived therefrom going into the salon treasury.

To conclude the evening a delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Landers, assisted by Sheffield members.

The March meeting of the organization will be held in Warren.

Local Interest In February Wedding Of Virginia Veach

Many readers in this section who are old friends of the Veach family in Oil City will read with interest the following account of the wedding of Miss Virginia Veach, taken from the February 14th issue of the Oil City Derrick:

In the Walter Reed Memorial Chapel, Washington, D. C., Saturday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock, Miss Virginia Veach of Oil City was united in marriage with Col. Jack Ubanks Finks of Washington, D. C.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Robert Wells Veach, uncle of the bride, and Rev. Gordon G. Hawley, chaplain at Walter Reed.

Miss Veach was given in marriage by her brother, John Bemus Veach.

Miss Mary Virginia Wise of Butler, niece of the bride, was maid of honor. Ann Avery of Oil City was flower girl and Harry Kuhn, Jr., of Washington, D. C., was ring bearer. Captain Will Scott Finks, of Baltimore, Md., was his brother's best man.

The reception was given in the Congressional Country Club by Mr. and Mrs. John B. Veach.

After a wedding trip in the south, the couple will reside in Washington, D. C.

Among those attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. John B. Veach and John B. Veach, Jr., Oil City; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon L. Wise, Miss Virginia Wise, David and Bernard Wise, Jr., of Butler; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Avery and daughter, Ann, and Jesse Atwell, of Oil City; Mr. and Mrs. Byron Leach, Youngstown, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Emmons Wade, of Warren, Pa.; Mrs. Raymond Brennan, of Bradford, and Mr. and Mrs. Drayton Meade, of Warrington, Va.

YW Offering Special Classes

The Young Adult Committee of the YWCA, of which Mrs. Hugh Logan is chairman, announces today the formation of classes in bridge and parliamentary procedure for March and April.

The bridge class will be for both beginners and advanced students and will meet on Tuesday evenings for a series of eight weeks. The beginners' class will meet at 7:30 and the advanced class at nine o'clock. The instructor will be Sylvester Mullen and he will be at the YW Monday evening, February 28th, from seven until eight to register people for the classes. All who are interested in attending this class are asked to come to the activities building and register next Monday night. The first session of the classes will be held Tuesday, March 8th.

Another parliamentary procedure course by Mrs. Warren Carlin is offered for a six-week period starting Monday, March 14th. She will have two classes, one in the afternoon and one in the evening. The former will be on Mondays at two o'clock and the latter on Wednesday at 7:30. Mrs. Carlin conducted a similar class in the fall and those who participated in it are enthusiastic about further training. After completion of these additional beginners' classes, an advanced class may be a reality later in the spring. Her classes are limited to 12 persons, with a minimum of ten necessary to have the class. Registrations for this class may be made by phoning 450.

Oil City Church Is Scene Of Clark And Sedon Rites

Before a large gathering of relatives and friends in Grace Methodist church in Oil City at three o'clock Saturday afternoon, February 12, Miss Helen Louise Sedon, Oil City, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leopold Sedon, Park street, Warren, became the bride of Lloyd H. Clark, son of Mrs. Ora H. Clark, East Sixth street, Oil City.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. George H. Palmer, pastor of the church, and the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. Arthur S. Blank, church organist, and George Baker, of Pittsburgh, an uncle of the bride, was soloist.

The bride wore a wedding gown of white satin with train. The sweetheart neckline was outlined with a seed pearl design, and the bodice had long sleeves. She wore a fingertip veil attached to a tiara, and carried a sheath of white roses.

The bride's three sisters, of Warren, were her attendants. Miss Esther Sedon, as maid of honor, wore a gown of blue taffeta with matching floral headdress, and Miss Martha Sedon wore a yellow gown with yellow headdress, while Miss Ruth Sedon wore a lavender taffeta dress with white headdress. All three attendants wore mits to correspond with their costumes, and carried arm sprays of pink roses.

The bride's mother wore a gray suit with dark blue accessories and a shoulder bouquet of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a black and white ensemble with gray accessories and a shoulder bouquet of white carnations.

Loy Manross, of Cranberry, was Mr. Clark's best man, and ushering were Harold and Richard Sedon, of Warren, brothers of the bride.

A reception was held in the church parlors, immediately after the ceremony. The table was decorated with a large wedding cake, and floral arrangements.

Following a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will reside at 213 East Sixth street, Oil City. For traveling the bride wore a gray suit with black accessories and a shoulder bouquet of pink roses.

Both the bride and bridegroom are employed in the National Transit Pump and Machine Company offices. The bride is a graduate of Warren High School and the bridegroom is a graduate of the Oil City High School. Preceding her marriage Mrs. Clark was honored at a number of parties.

Out of town guests attending the wedding included: Mr. and Mrs. John Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hennessy, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Rydholm and daughters, Elvira and Ann, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rosentrater, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest

Huber and daughter, Carolyn, Miss Ruth Ackert, Mr. and Mrs. William Sedon, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sedon, the bride's parents and family, Miss Ottilie Stowe, all of Warren; Mr. and Mrs. George Baker and daughter, Betty, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Craze, Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lennig, and daughters, Louise Ann and Carol, Erie; Miss Olive Clupp, Bradford; Darrell Schaub, Franklin; Mr. and Mrs. Merle Cousins, Titusville.

On Trial in Munich

Five Europeans, accused of collecting American military information to be turned over to a foreign power, sit in the Munich, Germany, court where their case is being heard by a U. S. military mission. The defendants are, left to right, Theodore Sesselschroder, Gerg, Ecolodys, Helmut Schoslok, Rudi Radura (covered), and Roman Knott (covered). Notes used as evidence against them said the U. S. had 600 atom bombs but had "lost" one of them.

Four Children With Mother Die In Blaze

Atlanta, Feb. 24.—(P)—Four young children and their mother died last night when flames from an oil stove explosion engulfed a frame two-family dwelling in suburban Riverside.

The 32-year-old mother, Mrs. Harvey R. Wallace, gave her life in a futile attempt to save her children who were asleep when the stove exploded. Fulton county police identified the other dead as Wallace children, Vera 10, Shirley 1, Leon 5, and Patsy 3.

Two other persons in the building escaped.

The father had left for work a short time before the explosion touched off the fast-spreading fire. Mrs. Wallace had put the four children to bed and was visiting with Mrs. J. L. Boone, who lived in the same house, when the explosion occurred.

She had her 18-month-old baby, Perry, with her. Mrs. Boone took the baby and ran to safety. Mrs. Wallace ran into the flaming bedroom in an effort to rescue the sleeping children.

Fulton County Patrolman Q. F. Lays said the fire destroyed the home in a few minutes after the explosion. The last of the five charred bodies was recovered from the ruins several hours later.

Higher Price Tags On New Dodge Cars

Detroit, Feb. 24.—(P)—Chrysler's Dodge division publicly introduced its new 1949 model today—with higher price tags.

The new prices represent increases ranging from $22 to $122. As the new cars were shown in dealer display rooms throughout the country, Chrysler Corp. also announced increases on its DeSoto, Chrysler and Plymouth models, still to be publicly introduced.

On the entire new Chrysler product the increases average 6.66 percent. The lowest dollar increase is $16.35 on Plymouth De Luxe three-passenger coupe. The highest is $122 on the Chrysler New Yorker, eight-cylinder convertible coupe.

Aside from the price on the Plymouth De Luxe three-passenger vehicle, the Plymouth models range from $11.35 to $117.00. Similarly the Dodge model prices represent increases of from $116 to $122 excepting for the three-passenger coupe. The latter carries the $22 advance.

In both instances the three-passenger coupes are the new shorter wheelbase models. The new Plymouth in this class will have a factory retail price, exclusive of taxes, at Detroit, of $129.50. The new Dodge on the shorter wheelbase is listed at the factory at $152.50.

Three new lines are included in the 1949 Dodges.

and replace it with a modified Wagner act with less "teeth" in it to curb emergency strikes and secondary boycotts. The battle mainly has been over these controls.

The committee now goes into closed sessions. Next the bill—whatever bill the committee works up—will go to the senate floor for public debate and vote. The debate may start late next month.

But the whole senate schedule might possibly be thrown off balance by a filibuster touched off by an effort to change the senate rules to kill the filibuster.

A southern senator said today some of his Dixie colleagues might back a Republican effort to keep a civil rights debate going, and thus block a long string of top-priority administration bills.

The issue is due to come up next day.

BULLETINS

Harrisburg, Feb. 24.—(P)—Five year old Shari Zimmerman left the Harrisburg Hospital today after a day's treatment for injuries suffered when she was thrown into the Susquehanna river.

Boston, Feb. 24.—(P)—A Federal judge took under consideration today an appeal of Stanley W. Parker, telephone company executive, from a $5,000 verdict against him in the "Sugar-Puss" alienation case.

London, Feb. 24.—(P)—Yugoslavia today proposed setting up a self-governing province in Austrian Carinthia in a bid to break a two-year old Big Four deadlock over an Austrian independence treaty.

Nanking, Feb. 24.—(P)—Vice Premier Wu Te-Chen flew here from Hong Kong today with word that Premier Sun Fo would come to Nanking within three or four days.

Washington, Feb. 24.—(P)—Mon C. Wallgren, President Truman's choice for a top defense post, denied today he was "soft with Communists" while governor of Washington state.

Harrisburg, Feb. 24.—(P)—Administration-backed bills were drafted today to boost jobless benefits and workmen's compensation payments $5 a week.

Tehran, Iran, Feb. 24.—(P)—American authorities announced today all five bodies of crewmen who died in the crash of their American diplomatic plane early this month have been recovered and will be sent to the United States soon.

Kolarov asserted the Vatican "does not conceal its aims."

Kolarov indicated the Vatican's apostolic delegation in Bulgaria has been ordered out of the country. He said it is superfluous, since the new constitution guarantees freedom to all religions.

The apostolic mission, he said, can be considered "completely humiliating." This ends, he added, a "humiliating episode" for Bulgaria.

Kolarov told parliament that churchmen in Bulgaria must be ruled by the nation's laws and the existing social order.

(Pope Pius XII told an extraordinary consistory in Rome Feb. 14 that Roman Catholic clergy and members of the faith are bound by conscience to resist "unjust laws" when such laws contradict divine and human rights.)

Kolarov declared that Catholic bishops now are required to report to the Vatican regularly on economic and political information in their areas. He said his proposed law would prevent Catholic clergy in Bulgaria from being "turned into agents" and relaying "state secrets" to a "foreign political headquarters."

Kolarov asserted there were only 15,000 Protestants in Bulgaria's 7,000,000 population.

The 15 Protestant leaders were charged in a government document yesterday with using religion as a "cloak" for "criminal activities."

The document contained depictions from the accused churchmen. Earlier the Communist press printed purported confessions of three of the 15.

Kolarov promised the trial would receive the "widest publicity."

DEATH RECALLS FLOOD

Pittsburgh, Feb. 24.—(P)—James E. Jones, 86, one of the relief wardens in Johnstown's 1889 flood died yesterday. For 55 years he was a wholesale salesman in Cambria, Westmoreland and Somerset counties.

SLOWDOWN ENDS AT ONE N. Y. TERMINAL

New York, Feb. 24.—(P)—A union spokesman said Railway Express Agency workers discontinued their slowdown today at the terminal at 42nd street and Eleventh avenue.

The report followed a vote by AFL union members last night recommending an end to a combined slowdown and work stoppage against the agency in the New York metropolitan area.

The meeting urged the men to resume normal work immediately. Daniel J. Sullivan, regional general chairman of the express division of the AFL Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship clerks, said.

Sullivan said the company had "made an offer" to settle a dispute over wages and hours on a nationwide scale.

Writer Denies Red Charges of Espionage

to do so, the 54-year-old, travel-weary repatriate turned a haggard face toward a battery of cameras, lights and microphones and said:

"I have not done anything against the security of the Soviet state or any other state, either by espionage or sabotage."

But Miss Strong hastened to add that she considers her expulsion was caused by "the tension and war hysteria which the American press has done so much to stir up."

As a result, she said, it could be predicted that she would "not be the last, because any American journalist asking questions comes under suspicion and people in certain countries are afraid to talk to them."

OVERLOADED WIRING CAUSES $130,000 FIRE

Huntington, W. Va., Feb. 24.—(P)—"Defective or overloaded wiring" was blamed today for a fire which caused an estimated $130,000 damage to the Sears Roebuck and Co. store, Fire Chief Floyd Crouse said.

Crouse said the blaze, which for a time threatened other downtown buildings, originated between the ceiling of the fourth floor storage room and the roof.

Manager David Winters of Sears Roebuck, however, said he could not explain how the fire started, since a state fire inspector had checked the building only a few days before the fire broke out.

23 KILLED IN PLANE ACCIDENT IN CHINA

Hong Kong, Feb. 24.—(P)—(P)—A Cathay Pacific Airways passenger plane from Manila crashed and burned here today, killing 23 persons. The airline said 19 passengers and four crewmen were killed when the plane plunged into a rocky ravine at the west end of Braemar Reservoir in an almost isolated part of northern Hong Kong Island.

The wreckage burned for hours after the crash.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank all of my friends for the many gifts sent me since I fractured my leg and have been confined to my home in a cast.

The Barnes school teachers and all the pupils for the lovely Valentine sunshine box.

The Sheffield Free Methodist church for a beautiful plant and sunshine basket.

Also the hundreds of cards and other remembrances.

You have all helped to make my long hours enjoyable and I am a very happy little girl despite the fact that I must wear the cast and brace for weeks to come.

Thanks again everyone.

DONALD KEPPEL

Corry Journal. Donald S. Keppel of Columbus, died Wednesday morning shortly after 10 o'clock at the Corry Hospital where he was admitted on February 15th. His health began to fail three months ago and his condition has been critical for the past six weeks.

The deceased was born in Corry, May 26, 1928 and attended the Corry schools, graduating from the Corry Junior High School. He moved to Columbus with his parents in 1946 where he had since resided. Mr. Keppel was employed as a truck driver by various lumber firms in this vicinity, the Burik and Savko Lumber and Supply Company of Columbus, being his last employer.

Survivors include the parents of the deceased, Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Keppel; two brothers, Paul and Richard Keppel, all of Columbus; his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Georgia Deschamps of Corry; the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Keppel of R. D. 4; and a large number of other relatives.

The body is at the Bracken-Keating Funeral Home where friends may call and attend the service which will be held there Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will be in the family lot at the Pine Grove cemetery.

MRS. AUGUST B. JOHNSON

Amelia Elizabeth Johnson, wife of August B. Johnson, of Venturatown, died at 12:10 p. m. Wednesday in Warren General Hospital, where she had been admitted the previous day.

She was born February 14, 1885, in Kendall, Texas, but had been a resident of this vicinity for the past 40 years. She was a member of North Warren Presbyterian church and active in its Sunday school.

Besides her husband, she leaves four children: Mrs. Zella Ulrich, Warren; Miss Lois Johnson, at home; Clarence and Ralph Johnson, Venturatown; also four grandchildren; one sister and two brothers; Mrs. Lola Bauer, San Antonio, Texas; Taylor Sheppard, Uvalde, Texas; and John Sheppard, Bourne, Texas.

Removal has been made to the Peterson Funeral Home, where friends are being received and from where services will be held at two o'clock Saturday afternoon. Rev. Robert C. Knapp will officiate and interment will be made in Oakland cemetery.

FRITZ BENSON

Fritz Benson, 124 North South street, died at 10:15 a. m. today at Warren General Hospital. He had been in failing health for the past five years, but had become seriously so only the first of this week, having been admitted to the hospital on Monday.

He was born in Skene, Sweden, on December 5, 1870, and came to this country at the age of 16 years. He went first to Greensburg and later to Jamestown, N. Y., coming to Warren in 1912. He was the last of a family of 11 children and was a piano maker by trade. He had been employed by the Warren and Bennett piano companies for many years until in 1923, when he became an inspector at the Crescent Furniture Company. He continued in this work until his retirement in 1938.

Besides his wife, Nina Seagren Benson, he leaves one son, Henry Benson, member of the Warren Fire Department; two grandchildren, Donald, of Akron, O., and Mrs. Robert E. Lee, Warren.

Removal has been made to the Lutz Funeral Home, where friends will be received at the usual hours. Services will be held from there at two o'clock Saturday afternoon, conducted by his pastor, Rev. Nore Gustafson, of St. Paul's Lutheran church, and followed by interment in Oakland cemetery.

MRS. T. H. STEVENSON

Mrs. Sarah Matilda Stevenson, wife of Thomas H. Stevenson, passed away at 11:15 a. m. today at the home of her son, Mrs. Vada Kyler, 202 North Irving street, where she had made her home for the past year and a half. She had been in failing health for the past two months. She was born in Jefferson county, but had resided in Beechwoods and Falls Creek practically all her life prior to coming to Warren. She was a member of the Beechwoods Presbyterian church.

Besides her husband, she leaves the following children: Mrs. Ellen Daugherty, New Castle; Mrs. Vada Kyler, Warren; also four grandchildren.

Friends will be received at the Kyler home after 10 a. m. Friday. Funeral arrangements are incomplete and will be announced later.

MRS. ALEX JONES

Services were held at 2 p. m. Wednesday at the Lutz Funeral Home for Elita Marie Jones, wife of Alex Jones, 17 Jackson street, North Warren, who died February 21. Rev. Robert C. Knapp, pastor of North Warren Presbyterian church, officiated and the following served as bearers for interment in Pine Grove cemetery at Russell: Robert Wade, Milton Peterson, Elvira Sander, Russell Peterson, Russell Dietrich, William Wilson.

Attending the rites from away were Mr. and Mrs. Cowles, Salamanca, N. Y.; Mrs. North, of Jamestown, N. Y.

Miss Steinhoff Is Youngsville PTA Leaders' Speaker Plans Youth Event

Miss Matilda Steinhoff, of the Warren High School faculty, was at speaker for the meeting of the Youngsville PTA Association of the County Council of Girl Scouts, during her audience spellbound by ready wit and stories of her travels.

She also had with her many items acquired in Mexico, dolls, jewelry, boxes, wood carving, clay, as well as many hand-painted items.

Mrs. Marcel Pagent, president of the Youngsville PTA, presided at a short business session before turning the program over to Miss Steinhoff.

There were adults present representing 21 of the county troops as well as Mrs. Van Ord, president of the council; Mrs. A. J. Weller, chairman of the organization committee; Mrs. H. G. Stohl, chairman of program committee, as well as leader of a troop; Mrs. A. Gova, neighborhood chairman of the Girl Scouts of U. S. A.; and Miss Cecilia Rite, general secretary.

Announcements regarding the other - daughter silver tea on March 12th at Beatty school in celebration of the 37th anniversary of the Girl Scouts of U. S. A.; tentative plans for special training

Word comes from Youngsville that another in the series of community youth parties sponsored by the PTA is scheduled for Friday evening of this week, eight until eleven o'clock, in the school gymnasium.

Invited as special adult guests or chaperones for this affair are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Day, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Lay, and Mrs. Margie Finlan.

A program of games will be under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Harland McAllister and the coke bar will be supervised by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spencer, and Mrs. Don Agnew.

Briggs' Orchestra of Pleasant township has been engaged to provide the music for the evening and decorations in a patriotic theme are being worked out by Mrs. Neil Rounds, Mrs. Luther Pollard, Mrs. Walter Dale, Mrs. Wyllys Johnson, and Mrs. Archie Littlefield.

Mothers from the PTA membership will donate sandwiches for the refreshments.

to be given under Miss Jessie Brittingham in March; and the date for the next council meeting on March 17th were made during the business session.

Legion Auxiliary Guests

Sharing honors with the American Legion's department commander in one of the most Washington's Birthday parties ever held by the American Legion Auxiliary were several distinguished guests representing the women's organization: Mrs. D. A. Krumrine, of State College, who is department president; Mrs. Matthew Collins, of Bellevue, western vice president, and Mrs. Stanley Kahle, Reynoldsville, the western director.

Mrs. Krumrine is a charter member of Nittany Unit 245, which she helped to organize and which she has served in many official and committee capacities. She is the wife of Daniel A. Krumrine, who served 26 months with the 28th Division during World War I and is a past commander of Nittany Post. She has been active in the Centre-Lycum-Clinton County Council, helping in its founding and serving as its treasurer for four years. Since its inception, she has been an enthusiastic member of the Past Presidents' Parley, serving as its president during the period its scholarship fund was established. Her service in various department groups has been long and varied, including work on Fidae, Americanism, membership, tellers, rehabilitation and other committees; sectional director and vice president; director of the Keystone Girls' Camp, and, in higher capacity, on a number of national committees. In addition to this, she has still found time for many community activities, fund-raising campaigns and the like.

The record of Mrs. Collins, western vice president, has been one of uninterrupted service in unit, council and department since she first became a member of the auxiliary. At the conclusion of her term as president of North Boroughs Unit 116, in 1935-36, she was successful in her candidacy for several offices in the Allegheny County Council, culminating in its presidency in 1939-40. Like Mrs. Krumrine, she was closely associated with many phases of department work and was well fitted for the post which she now occupies.

teen of projects. All members are asked to bring one gift toward the Christmas Fair at the next meeting in March. All members will be responsible for three gifts for the fair, besides a fish pond donation, one jar of canned fruit or jam or any other gift which may be sold as a Christmas food gift, and a contribution to the lunch or kitchen bazaar on November 16th. One gift should be an apron or its equivalent in value. This spreads the contributions through the year. Chairmen will be announced prior to each project. The Linen and silver committee for the spring house cleaning was appointed and includes Mrs. Algot Swanson, Mrs. Bertel Carlson, Mrs. Leroy Johnson, Mrs. Ernest Swanson, and Miss Myrtle Johnson, with their duties to be completed in March. Membership chairman committee appointed included Mrs. Clyde Gilfert, Mrs. Gustav Olson, Miss Edith Larson, and Mrs. R. E. Wenstran. Program chairmen included Mrs. Wm. Hanson and Mrs. Emil Nelson. It was also decided that individuals would give gifts to the Lutheran World Relief Kits. Coffee was served at a beautifully appointed Valentine table at the close of the meeting. One new member was welcomed, Mrs. Eugene Huber, as well as other guests.

Regular services were held at the First Mission church Sunday morning and evening, with the Rev. Herman Davidson giving both messages. A prayer service also was held on Wednesday evening. The Sunday school rooms are being renovated.

American Legion

The James Huber Post of the American Legion held its regular meeting at the American Legion Hall. The business meeting was conducted by Commander Vernon Swanson, with several details arranged. The final dance before the Lenten season begins will be held next Saturday evening at the hall, with Happy, Ed, and the Gang furnishing the music. They have scheduled a cakewalk on Friday, March 4th, at 7:30 p. m. with proceeds to be used for the baseball team uniforms. This organization sponsored a games party Saturday evening at the hall for the same purpose. The Legionnaires also honored one of their members recently married, Arthur E. Christenson, and presented him with a blanket.

School
"The Magnificent Obsession" was given at the school Thursday evening. Movies are being scheduled fairly often as a means of earning money for the Patrol Boys and Girls in anticipation of their trip to Washington, D. C.

Birthday
Mrs. Axel Nelson entertained relatives and friends at her home Friday afternoon when they gathered to celebrate her 75th birthday. She was given many lovely reminders of the day. Out of town guests included Mrs. Agnes Duncan and Mrs. Clements Anderson of Warren.

Social
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hanson entertained at dinner Sunday evening with the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richards, of Jamestown; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hanson, Miss Helen Hanson, and Mrs. Ruth Bengston, of Kane. Mr. and Mrs. George Hall, of Union City, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gardner and Mrs. Eugene Huber.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richards, of Jamestown, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Hanson. Miss Marjorie Orcutt and Miss Lee Ann Wagner, of Hershey, were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Swanson recently.

Mrs. Adolph Swanson left Friday for Youngstown, where she will join her sister, Mrs. Jennie Dickhaut, leaving Saturday for a trip to California and the state of Washington, returning in the early summer.

Mrs. Frank Nelson left Thursday for Oklahoma City, where she will visit Mr. and Mrs. Norman Larson. Mrs. Larson will be remembered as Miss Marie Nelson. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Swanson and Mrs. Emil Johnson, of Warren, and Mrs. Helen Dinges, of New York City, were Friday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Swanson.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Wright, of Sheffield, were Ludlow visitors Sunday.

Several of the Ludlow students were in attendance at the Valentine dance given at the armory in Kane Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wenstran, of Erie, Emory Wenstran, of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson, of Wilcox, were weekend visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wenstran and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ralston.

Mild Winter Big Boon To State Farms

Favorable weather during early weeks of 1949 has enabled Pennsylvania farmers to make unusual progress with their outdoor work, the State Department of Agriculture said following a general farm survey the first of February.

January was the third straight month with unusually mild winter weather. Temperatures averaged seven degrees above normal. Soils remained unfrozen most of the month, permitting rains to seep in and increase water reserves.

Snow cover was absent except for a few days but mild temperatures minimized injury to winter grains, meadows and pastures. Temperatures climbed into the sixties at least once each week.

Fields of winter wheat, rye and barley are unusually green. Pastures and meadows also show more color than normal at this time of year. An unusual amount of January plowing was accomplished.

Winter work generally is well advanced on Pennsylvania farms. Repair of buildings and equipment is continuing in many localities. Supplies of wood for fuel were replenished and much progress made in cutting trees for timber.

Orchardists of Pennsylvania are busy trimming trees and getting equipment in shape for the coming season. In Lancaster County the stripping of tobacco was well advanced by the first of the month and a few sales had been reported.

Sale Price Of Cows In State Shows Decline

Although Pennsylvania dairy herds set a new all-time January production record last month, prices of cows showed a greater decline than for any period since the record high of $235 a head was reached last September, the State Department of Agriculture reported from Federal-State surveys.

Butter and butterfat prices remained steady while wholesale milk declined 20 cents a hundred pounds. As of January 15 cows were bringing an average of $230 a head, a drop of $4 from a month previous. A year earlier they averaged $215 a head. Mixed dairy feed at $4.05 per hundred pounds showed no change from December but was $1.05 lower than a year earlier.

The record January milk production was 426 million pounds, more than five per cent above the previous high for the month. Correspondents reported production per cow the highest on record for February 1, averaging 18 pounds. Grain feeding at 7.9 pounds per cow also was a new record. The estimated number of cows milked was placed at 962,000, exceeded only once for the month—by 1,000 cows in 1945.

Weekly Food Review

By The Associated Press

Housewives found higher prices on several meats and vegetables at favorite stores this week. Many beef items were up 4 to 10 cents a pound from last week in highly competitive chain stores across the country. Pork cuts advanced an average of 6 cents a pound.

Grade "A" eggs were up a penny or two a dozen. String beans advanced as much as 10 cents a pound in several cities, and tomatoes were a few cents higher.

The only meat to show a general downward trend was veal, which was marked down 4 to 10 cents a pound by several large chains.

In New York, one chain announced it was cutting evaporated milk a penny a can following wholesale reductions of 35 cents per case of 48 cans by three major manufacturers. That brought the retail price in New York to 27 cents for two cans.

Meat buyers attributed the beef and pork advances to a firm wholesale market resulting from fewer livestock receipts. They said livestock men, disappointed by recent low prices, apparently were holding back animal shipments.

The reduction in veal prices was described as an overdue reflection of last week's decline in other meat items. One major buyer said veal had encountered considerable consumer resistance and was "still too high-priced" at the wholesale level to compete favorably with beef and pork.

High string bean prices resulted from a seasonal "between-crops" shortage, produce men said. The Florida crop is about finished and the markets now are awaiting shipments from Texas and California which have been delayed by unfavorable weather.

The recent freezes in growing areas were said to be responsible for somewhat lower retail prices of carrots and beets.

"That cold weather turned carrots and beets tops brown," a department of agriculture produce spokesman said. "That didn't harm the vegetables themselves, but shoppers avoid them even if the discolored greens are to be trimmed off."

Fresh spinach and peas are available.

TUITION INCREASE AT ALLEGHENY COLLEGE

Meadville, Feb. 23.—(P)—Allegheny college has announced an increase in tuition from $475 to $535 per school year.

College President Louis T. Benetz said he "hopes that no deserving boy or girl finds it impossible to return to Allegheny next fall because of the increased charges."

He said $10,000 of additional income resulting from the increase will be returned to the student body in the form of extra scholarship aid.

Expansion In Farm Flocks Is Reported

Further expansions in Pennsylvania's poultry industry are reported by the State Department of Agriculture following Federal State surveys made as of February 1.

The outlook is for larger farm flocks and the raising of more broiler chickens in 1949.

Although the number of layers in Pennsylvania farm flocks this January was 2.5 per cent less than for the same month in 1948, production of 352 million eggs at all-time January record the survey revealed. The total was eight per cent above January 1948 and 16 per cent above last December.

The January flock total was 12,822,000 birds. Unusually mild weather continuing since early November was favorable to the rate of lay and at 14.33 eggs per layer equaled the previous January high attained in 1947.

Hatcherymen report that interest in chicks both for meat and flock replacement appears strong. On February 1 crop correspondents indicated they intend to purchase 56 per cent more straight run chicks this year than last, 17 per cent more pullet chicks and over 18 per cent more broiler chicks.

Prices received by Pennsylvania farmers for eggs on January 21 averaged 87.7 cents a dozen, about six cents less than a month earlier. Live chickens averaged 55 cents a pound, the same as in December. Turkeys were down one cent to 87 cents a pound, live weight.

Feed costs showed a slight gain in January over December. The relation between prices paid for feed and received for eggs therefore declined slightly, but improved over conditions a year earlier, the Department said.

"The Lady With a Lamp"

Madeline Carroll stars in "The Lady With a Lamp", a story of Florence Nightingale, this week's selection for the Episcopal broadcast series, "Great Scenes From Great Plays", to be heard at 8 p. m. Friday over WNAE and at 8 p. m. the same day over the Mutual network.

Dedicated to the American Red Cross on the eve of its annual drive for funds, this program is the 23rd in the series of dramas which has been presented. "The Lady With a Lamp" tells how Florence Nightingale had to oppose the world she lived in, the 1842 English world of strict Victorian formality, to achieve her dream and to found the modern tradition of nursing.

In this special dedication broadcast, the Episcopal Church urges people everywhere to help carry forth the great work of the American Red Cross by actively supporting its annual drive.

W P L REPORTING

THE LIBRARY STAFF believes that you will be interested in the following books which have been added to the collection during the past few weeks.

Among the new non-fiction, Dod Orshorne's "Master of the Girl Par", is a thrilling, tall-tale of his experiences, which really happened during his work with the British G-2 in the recent war. It is a book that is bound to please all adult readers. Detective story fan or not, you will want to read John Dickson Carr's biography of the creator of "Sherlock Holmes", Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. Carr is one of the leading whodunit writers.

If you enjoy reading about country life, and are a State of Maine enthusiast, you will like Henry Beston's "Northern Farm". Reviewed recently at one of the local clubs, the book has become one which passes from friend to friend with enthusiastic praise. "America Divided" by Arnold and Caroline Rose, treats the minority problem with great understanding and constructive solution. The "bomb", and its terrific effect on peace and war, gets a rational and calm interpretation in Patrick Blackett's "Fear, War and the Bomb"; it might be read with Bradley's "No Place to Hide"—one of the most important books this winter. For drama there is Robert Morley's successful play, "Edward, My Son", now current in New York.

Who is not interested in financial security? Lawrence Washington has written a most useful volume, "How to Plan Your Financial Security". Gardeners are already planning outdoor work and scanning the seed catalogues. Next to the African Violet, of household gardens, the tuberous begonia is one of the most popular flowers today. Worth Brown has a new book on its culture. Do you like to hike? The publishers have reprinted Edwin Valentine Mitchell's fine book on the subject—"The Pleasures of Walking".

Ask for these books at the library, any may be reserved for you.

Danger of fire from leaking hydraulic fluids used to operate essential mechanism in an airplane is practically eliminated by the new non-inflammable type fluid, skydrol.

Hoover Enjoys New Role As Nation's Elder Statesman

Hoover, Chief Executive: "Bull-headed" and hard-collared.

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent
Washington—(NEA)—Herbert Hoover enjoys his role of the nation's leading elder statesman more than he did that of Chief Executive.
Just 16 years ago when he was evicted from the White House, a tired, beaten, bitter man, most people assumed he was through. He hadn't enjoyed being President of the United States. Certainly nobody then would have gambled a wooden nickel on the chance that some day he'd be back in Washington, revitalized, happy, doing a great job for his country and enhancing his stature.
Democrats and Republicans use the term "mellowed" to describe the change in Hoover. And it's pretty accurate.
In 1933 they called him "bull-headed" and "domineering." Today he's just "firm in his convictions." Then he was "cold" and "unfeeling." Now he's "keen" and "analytical." "Anti-social" has become "reserved."
Old friends attribute any mellowness to the fact that Hoover has enjoyed very much being Chairman of the Commission on Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government. It's more his meat, they say, than the Presidency, although being the only living former President is probably the main thing that got him the job.
Just 16 years pretty much his own boss running the commission, and he likes that. He divides his time between Washington and New York. In Washington he lives in a simple suite in the Mayflower Hotel. His faithful secretary, Miss Bernice Miller who has been with him for years, takes care of his personal affairs.
Usually he walks the few blocks between the Mayflower and the office building which houses the commission's quarters. No special secretarial staff is assigned to him here. Occasionally he'll borrow a stenographer to dictate a letter. Mostly he visits the offices of the other commissioners in the morning and then attends formal meetings of the commission in the afternoon.
Hoover practically never eats alone. His meals are for business—with members of the commission or with key staff workers. At night he'll take a martini as a concession to the full life. Once in a while he'll accept a strictly social invitation to the house of an old friend like Rep. Christian A. Hertzler, of Massachusetts, or Tracy S. Voorhees, a New York attorney who is assistant to the Secretary of the Army.
The degree of unanimity his commission has achieved in reporting its findings is, to some extent, credited to Hoover's lunches. When he issues an invitation to the noon meal it's an order. And the person invited knows it's probably to iron out some difficulty or disagreement. The device has worked out very well.
In formal meetings of the group, Hoover has a tendency to try to dictate policy. It was only after some little bitterness during early sessions that he finally agreed to take a vote on disputed points. But he hasn't handled meetings without humor. He broke an ice during one session with an anecdote that set the members howling.
The story concerned a small town postmaster who had been indicted for stealing several thousand dollars from the stamp till. Hoover was in the White House and the man's wife somehow got in to make a personal appeal. The basis of claiming her husband's innocence was this:
"Why, Mr. President, he's no thief. Every time he took a dollar out of that till he'd put in his I. O. U. for the exact amount."
Hoover's main base of operations these days is New York, although his permanent home is Stanford, Calif. His Gotham establishment is an apartment in the Waldorf-Astoria Towers. He pores over the reports and information he has picked up in Washington. Then he dictates his recommendations and writes letters. Two stenographers working full time handle this job. His working schedule in New York is just as strenuous as it is in Washington.
Nobody would say that Hoover doesn't look his 74 years. But he's as healthy and spry as the average man of his age. His ability to drive himself and others to get a job done is a startling contradiction to his years. If he looks younger in his pictures now than he did years ago, it's probably because he has stopped wearing old-fashioned high stiff collars and wears less conservative suits.
"Mellowed," as they say, and with newly-won respect for his work on the commission, Hoover looks back on an outstanding career. Born into a poor Quaker family broken up early by death,

Hoover, elder-statesman: A soft collar and a "mellowed" man.

he worked hard during his youth to get a degree in engineering from Stanford. This led to mining engineering jobs all over the world.
After World War I he achieved international fame directing U. S. relief in Europe. It was mainly this that got him elected President in 1928. After his defeat in 1932 by Franklin Roosevelt, he has lived

Clarendon Veterans Planning Fiesta Week

The Marshall Larsen Post of the V. F. W. wishes to announce that they will have a Fiesta Week from July 4th to July 9th inclusive.
The week will provide a carnival, parades, old timers' get-togethers, dances, and contests against a colorful background of Old Mexico.
The committee believes this will be the biggest and gayest celebration held in these parts for a long time.
Special announcements will be made from time to time concerning specific events of the week.

State Hospital Officials Are Praised For Byberry Project

A behind-the-scenes story of how five members of the Warren State Hospital staff, headed by Joe Gardner, aided in improvement of conditions at once infamous Byberry—now Philadelphia State Hospital—was disclosed today in a copyrighted series of articles on state mental hospital conditions written by Ray Spriggle, Pittsburgh Post-Gazette staff writer.

Spriggle's article said, in part: "With notable assistance from the staffs of Warren State and Danville State Hospitals, old Byberry's infamous Building A, rechristened the 'Rose Garden' is no more.

"Philadelphia's 'Rose Garden' had gained unwelcome, and in some measure, undeserved publicity for all Pennsylvania's mental hospitals from magazines and newspapers throughout the nation.

"The state's largest mental hospital literally didn't have the resources to correct the evil conditions in the ancient Building A.

"Superintendents from other state mental hospitals x x x and Charlie A. Barber, Welfare secretary, met at Philadelphia State to plan a cleanup of conditions in the 'Rose Garden.'

"Five competent attendants from Warren State and four men from Danville State were called in, headed by Joseph Gardner of Warren. The group took over the 'Rose Garden' and in a couple of months a miracle ensued. Twenty-eight tuberculous patients were sent to tuberculosis wards for treatment. The remaining 250 were divided into three groups according to the degree of regression encountered.

"The patients were supervised night and day for habit training, dressing, recreation and feeding.

PROJECTOR FILMS ARE AVAILABLE

Mrs. Florence Pangborn, county superintendent of visual education for the WCTU, announces that the county projector and six slide films belonging to the County WCTU are being used throughout the county and are available to local chairmen.

The films, both instructive and educational, have been presented in Tidoute High School, Junior High and the health classes this past week. They were also enjoyed in an evening program of the WCTU, under the heading of visual education.

Anyone wishing further information on this project is asked to communicate with Mrs. Pangborn at Russell.

Although women were not generally enfranchised in the American colonies, taxpaying widows and unmarried women sometimes were permitted to vote.

Plan Rites Friday For Sheffield Boy

Funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock in St. Anthony's Roman Catholic church in Sheffield for another of the district's war heroes whose body has been shipped home for reinterment.

Father Al. J. Macken will conduct the funeral for Pfc. Anthony R. Jashurak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jashurak of 55 Deerlick street, Sheffield. He was killed in Italy on September 29, 1944, and was buried in the U. S. cemetery at Castle Fiorentino.

The body arrived in Sheffield last night and was taken to the family home, where the Rosary will be recited this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Pfc. Jashurak will be buried in St. Joseph's cemetery with military rites to be conducted by members of the Sheffield V. F. W. Post.

He was born in Sheffield on May 18, 1923, and was inducted into the army on March 29, 1943. He served with Company B Infantry of the 88th Division.

In addition to his parents, Pfc. Jashurak leaves the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Mary Stranava of Wetmore, Jacob and Frank, Jr., of Sheffield; and Anna Konecny of Erie.

The Borden Funeral Home of Sheffield is in charge of arrangements.

There's More to An Ad Than Reading It!

Here are the necessary steps to reproducing an ad in the Times-Mirror:

1. After the Ad Man has sold the ad it must be properly laid out and scheduled.
2. It goes to the mark up man who marks the type sizes and styles on it.
3. The Linotype operators set all the machine type.
4. The printer sets the hand type.
5. The compositor puts all the pieces together. Proofs it.
6. The proof reader makes the necessary corrections.
7. The floor man sets it in the page forms.
8. The stereotyper rolls a mat of the complete page form.
9. The press room boys make a round cast of this page.
10. Put it on the press... start the press... clean out the nigger heads and sinks on the page.
- N. Now the paper is ready for the circulation department... it goes either to the newsboy or the Post Office.

Here Mr. Merchant is the reason why we at the Times-Mirror must have your copy not later than 2 P. M. two days before publication...
